

CHAPTER 10 SECTION 1

1. _____ This was built to speed naval access between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.
2. _____ Instead of using bullets, people wanted to use these as a kinder gentler means of persuasion.
3. _____ What was Teddy Roosevelt's manner of handling foreign policy.
4. _____ The sinking of this ship was used a pretext for going to war with Spain.
5. _____ During the French building of the canal how many workers died because of disease.
6. _____ The policy of placing foreign governments under economic, military, and political domination of the United States.
7. _____ What doctrine did Teddy Roosevelt expand on to give the US an excuse for interfering in foreign countries.
8. _____ With the end of the Spanish-American war what two valuable territories did the US gain.
9. _____ Who won the Nobel Peace Prize winner in 1905.

Why was the United States so interested in having the Philippines as a base of operations