

Name:

Hour:

Chapter 13, Section 2: Court Structure

1. _____ A specialized court that hears cases about the legislative powers of congress.
2. _____ A group of people who evaluate whether there is enough evidence against a person to order them to stand trial
3. _____ This court handles claims against the U.S. Government for money damages.
4. _____ Length of the term of a federal judge.
5. _____ Group that decides whether or not a person is guilty.
6. _____ A federal court with constitutionally based powers.
7. _____ These courts were created to lessen the caseload of the U.S. Supreme Court.
8. _____ This court handles disputes over taxes.
9. _____ Concept that all federal judge appointments must be made with the "advice and consent" of the senate.
10. _____ These types of federal courts have original jurisdiction ONLY.
11. _____ These types of federal courts NEVER have original jurisdiction.
12. _____ These courts cover the U.S. territories (Virgin Islands, Guam, etc.)