

Chapter section 3

1. _____ A hurricane in this town lead to a reform of city government that was more efficient.
2. _____ The governor of the state of Wisconsin made state governments more responsive to the will of the people
3. _____ This allows people of the party to select and vote for the person they want to run in the general election.
4. _____ This reform allows people to introduce a bill into the state legislature without having to go through the political bosses.
5. _____ Allows voters to cast a ballot for or against a particular law
6. _____ This gives the electorate the opportunity to remove a public official they feel is doing a bad job
7. _____ This constitutional amendment made the direct election of senators the reality
8. _____ The push for the right of women to vote was called.
9. _____ This group pressed to make the consumption of alcohol illegal
10. _____ A tragic fire in 1911 resulted in the death of 146 women