

Section One: Theodore Roosevelt and the Modern Presidency

Name: _____ Hour: _____

1. After _____ was assassinated in 1901, Vice President _____ was sworn into office.
2. When the United States declared war on Spain in 1898, Roosevelt left his post as _____ and created a group of volunteers known as the _____.
3. Known as an advocate of conservation, Teddy Roosevelt was a believer of _____, or the rational scientific management of natural resources.
4. On land that originally belonged to _____, the United States built the _____ as a way to cut travel time between the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans.
5. In order to get around antitrust laws, corporations created _____ to control stock of other companies without actually purchasing the company outright.
6. President Roosevelt ordered the attorney general to file suit against the _____ in 1902 for violating the Sherman Antitrust Act.
7. _____ is a settlement imposed by an outside party.
8. Due to the outrage towards the meatpacking industry caused by Upton Sinclair's The Jungle, Roosevelt pushed the _____ through Congress.
9. The _____ was an addition to the Monroe Doctrine that stated that the U.S. had a right to police to Western Hemisphere from foreign aggression.
10. At the end of his second term, President Roosevelt chose _____ to be his successor for the Republican party.